

Letter of Intent: Honor Board

Dear 1L class,

My name is Zoe Rae. During my time in undergrad, I took a course on Campus Sexual Assault where we spent a lot of time looking at how institutions respond to sexual assault on campus. I learned how cases are decided and what sanctions are applied. In undergrad, I was a member of a club disciplinary board. I was an arcade manager, and there was a lot of conflict between my co-workers. Once, when I had to write a report about a disagreement between my co-workers. One of my co-workers was my friend and the other was not. I looked at the facts and heard both sides of the story, and I wrote that my friend was in the wrong, because I judge that objectively she was. As a result of my report the other co-worker did not receive disciplinary actions that my friend wanted. All of this is to say, I have experience in disciplinary actions and measure.

If I am elected to honor board, I will use my past experience in any decision. I want to ensure that all sides of the story are heard and ensure that decisions are fair. I have seen a decision that was biased and hurt the injured party. At the time I was not in a position, where I could advocate for a fair decision. One important part of Honor Board is confidentially; the board cannot discuss anything about cases that have been presented to them. I worked at a jail, and everyday people would ask me questions I couldn't answer. Confidentially was required for my job, I had access to people's private information. Families wanted information of where their relation was, but I couldn't tell them. On occasion some families were upset at me, and I understood why they wanted the information, but I couldn't violate someone's privacy. I hold this stance for honor board, and I will act the same for all matters brought before the honor board.

Thank you for your consideration. I grateful to have this opportunity.

Sincerely,

Zoe Rae Coffman
